World Call Index 1963

THIS detailed index has been prepared for persons who have occasion to refer to authors, articles, and photographic illustrations in World Call, Volume XLV (January-December 1963). All listings are combined in one alphabetical index.

The name of a person is listed with a notation as to whether he is the author or the subject of an article. All articles, stories, poems, etc., are also listed according to topic of discussion.

Photographic illustrations are indicated as follows:

il This appears after the name of an article and means that it is illustrated. For example:

INDIA: Christmas Comes to Orissa, Dorothy Davis il D 29

(Explanation: An illustrated article on the subject INDIA, entitled "Christmas Comes to Orissa," written by Dorothy Davis, will be found in the December issue on page 29.)

il por This means that the article by or about that person is illustrated and the illustrations include a picture of the author or of the person about whom the article is written. For example:

CHON, Siryoon (author): Six Thousand Miles to God il por Mr 15

(Explanation: An illustrated article by Siryoon Chon entitled "Six Thousand Miles to God" has a picture of the author and may be found in the March issue on page 15.)

por This means that the article by or about the person is illustrated only with a portrait of the author or of the person about whom the article is written. For example:

GEORGE, Zelma (about): People-to-People Ambassador, Jean Bowles por S 37

(Explanation: An article about Zelma George, illustrated only by a portrait of Dr. George, entitled "People-to-People Ambassador," written by Jean Bowles, will be found in the September issue on page 37.)

(about) This refers to something related to the individual personally or an event in which he was involved along with others.
